

FINES IMPOSED ON WEAPON CARRIERS

Alexandria Police Judge Assesses Two $20 Each, Another Forfeits Collateral—Snowden Funeral Today.

WASHINGTON TIMES BUREAU, ALEXANDRIA, VA., APRIL 17.

Several heavy fines were imposed in police court this morning as the result of carrying concealed weapons. Police-men Bell and Nowland yesterday arrested John Dugan and Robert O'Brien in the northeastern section of the city, the former flourishing a weapon. Dugan asserted that he had taken it away from his companion in order that "he might not hurt himself." A fine of $20 was imposed on Dugan, and O'Brien forfeited a similar amount by failing to appear.

Hugh Burke, colored, had a large Colt revolver projecting from his pocket. He was fined $20.

Splendid tribute was made to the memory of the late Hubert Snowden, president of the common council, at a joint meeting of that body and the board of aldermen held last night. It was decided to attend the funeral today in a body.

Attended by the many organizations of which he was a member and by hundreds of citizens, funeral services for Mr. Snowden were held from Christ Protestant Episcopal Church this afternoon. During the ceremonies business in the city was practically at a standstill. All public offices and the schools were closed at noon, and the city's bells tolled as the funeral cortege passed.

Rev. William Jackson, rector of the church, assisted by Rev. Berryman Green, of the Theological Seminary officiated. The burial, in Christ Church Cemetery, was in charge of Alexandria Washington Lodge of Masons, the Masonic ritual being used.

The following life-long friends acted as pallbearers: Luther H. Thompson, William P. McKnight, Harry R. Burke, William E. Fendall, George S. French, George Uhler, John B. Waller, Francis F. Marbury, E. F. Price, and Thomas W. Robinson.

Many floral offerings were received, among them being a large set piece sent by members of the city council.

At the monthly meeting of the Retail Merchants' Association, held last night, a committee consisting of Llewellyn F. Dyson, G. Well, and Harrie White was appointed to make arrangements for the entertainment of the convention of the Improved Order of Red Men, to be held here May 15 and 16.

A committee from the Chamber of Commerce and from the Alexandria Automobile Association will confer with the board of supervisors of Fairfax county at 11 o'clock May 1 for the purpose of making arrangements for the construction of the route of the Quebec-Miami highway in that county.

Plans for the perfection of the organization with the election of permanent officers will be made at the meeting of the Alexandria Automobile Association to be held in the rooms of the Chamber of Commerce at 8:30 o'clock tonight.

The sum of $1.150 was realized as the result of the sale at auction in New-

SAYS TRADE SEEKERS HINDER MISSIONARIES

Bishop A. W. Wilson Scores Diplomatic Agents and Mercantile Men.

That diplomatic agents and mercantile men who go to China and the Far East are traitors to their religion and hinder missionaries in the performance of their duties among the heathen, was the declaration by Bishop A. W. Wilson, of Baltimore, last night before the members of the Woman's Missionary Council of the Methodist Episcopal Church South.

The council is holding its annual session at the Mt. Vernon place church in this city. Bishop Wilson made the principal address at the meeting of the council last night, and was emphatic in his denunciation of diplomatic and mercantile agents' interference with the work of the missionaries.

The following young women were commissioned as foreign missionaries: For Brazil, Misses Eva Louise Hyde, Fallsbury, Mo.; Maggie Lea Kenney, Los Angeles; Lucy Henderson, Murfreesboro, Tenn.; for Korea, Misses Laura Simmons, Barnsville, Ga., and Carrie E. Minor, St. Louis, Mo.; for China, Misses Theodora Wales, Birmingham, N. Y.; Alice Green, North Carolina; Florence Henderson, Elberton, Ga.; Edith Hayer, Alabama; for Mexico, Miss Beale Lee Wilson, of College Grove, Tenn.

SUN'S ECLIPSE NOT VISIBLE IN CAPITAL

Beclouded Sky Ruins View of Those Interested in Astronomic Event.

Even those Washingtonians who arose with the chicks today to see the partial eclipse of the sun by the moon—a spectacle predicted to occur at the day's dawn—were disappointed. Astronomically-interested Washington was fooled by Dame Weather, who presented a beclouded sky and cloaked from vision anything that the sun, moon or stars might have done.

Learned astronomers say, however, that the sun rose over the eastern horizon in partial eclipse and remained in that semi-obscured condition for nearly an hour and a half. Astronomic computations, based on statistics and investigations that can't be wrong, alone enabled them to tell just what the sun and moon did during their astral associations of the early dawn. The physical cause of an eclipse is easily understood, say the astronomers. The only essential condition is that the earth, sun and moon must be in a straight line, the moon being between the earth and the sun. The eclipse today would have been visible throughout this country east of the Mississippi. The next eclipse visible in this country will be one of the moon in September.

NAVAL BATTALION GOING TO NORFOLK

Sails Tomorrow on Ozark, Which Will Be Placed in Drydock.

The United States ship Ozark, with the entire ship's crew and thirty members of the Naval Battalion of the District National Guard, sets sail for Norfolk tomorrow morning, where she will go into dry dock, where her officers and men remain while she is undergoing a course of repairs. The Ozark is the training ship of the naval battalion.

The cruise is preliminary to the annual cruise the battalion will take from July 14 to July 23, when it will maneuver near Tangier Island, in the Chesapeake bay. Here the District sailors will engage in target practice, and will maneuver with the naval militia of States ordered there for annual practice. It will be their first opportunity to actually fire the big guns of the training ship Ozark.

Body Identified.

The body found floating in the Potomac yesterday off Port Hunt, Va., has been identified as that of Edward Franklin, who fell overboard from an oyster boat and was drowned November 10, 1911. He was forty-four years old and lived in Raleigh court southwest. Identification was established by means of tattoo marks on the arms.
